

2012 HEINRICH WIELAND PRIZE

To promote research on biologically active molecules and systems in the areas of chemistry, biochemistry and physiology as well as on their clinical impact, the Boehringer Ingelheim Foundation endows the Heinrich Wieland Prize. The prize is named in honor of Heinrich Wieland (1877-1957), a Nobel Prize laureate in chemistry. (www.heinrich-wieland-prize.de)

The HEINRICH WIELAND PRIZE

consists of the Heinrich Wieland Medal and a sum of 50,000 Euros.

We invite nominations or applications for the Prize 2012 until February 28, 2012.

The presentation of the prize will take place in Munich in autumn 2012. The prize winner will be selected by a board of trustees: Wolfgang Baumeister (Martinsried, Chair), Georg Ertl (Würzburg), Alois Fürstner (Mülheim/Ruhr), Hans-Georg Joost (Potsdam), Paul Knochel (Munich), Walther Rosenthal (Berlin-Buch), Gerd Schnorrenberg (Biberach), Petra Schwille (Dresden), Rudolf Tauber (Berlin), Felix Wieland (Heidelberg), Hanns Ulrich Zeilhofer (Zurich)

Nominations or applications should include the following documents:

- 1) in hard copy: summary of no more than two pages in German or English, CV and list of the five most relevant publications from the past 10 years
- 2) on CD: bibliography and manuscripts of the five listed publications

Please send the documents to Dr. Anja Hoffmann, Boehringer Ingelheim Foundation, Schlossmuehle, Grabenstrasse 46, 55262 Heidesheim, Germany.

The Boehringer Ingelheim Foundation (www.boehringer-ingelheim-stiftung.de) is an independent, not-for-profit institution for the promotion of research in medicine, biology, chemistry and pharmacy.

Boehringer Ingelheim
Stiftung